

Simon Grey

s.grey@mauricebyers.com +61 2 8233 0300

Education

- 2013 Bachelor of Laws, with honours (Macquarie University)
- 1st in Advanced Torts.
 - Distinction average.
- 2009 Bachelor of Arts (Sociology) (The University of Sydney)

Qualifications

- May 2019 Admitted as a barrister, NSW
- May 2013 Admitted as a solicitor, NSW

Legal Career

- May 2019 – date Barrister, Maurice Byers Chambers, Sydney
Practicing in civil and criminal law.
- 2018-2019 Associate, Makinson d'Apice Lawyers, Sydney
Advised and appeared in NSW Courts on behalf of NSW Police and private medical practitioners in civil cases.
- 2017-2018 Solicitor (NSW admitted), Clifford Chance LLP, London
Advised in Litigation, Dispute Resolution & Risk Management (mainly media related).
- 2014-2017 Associate/Solicitor, McCabe Curwood, Sydney
Advised and appeared exclusively for NSW Health (Local Health Districts/Ambulance/individual employees) in medical negligence claims and Coronial inquests.
- 2013-2014 Solicitor, Carroll & O'Dea Lawyers, Sydney
Advised and appeared in NSW Courts and Tribunals, as well as advising on non-litigated claims, in a range of personal injury and historical sexual abuse claims.

Pro Bono

I participate in the NSW Bar Association's Duty Barrister Scheme and from time to time do pro bono work for Marrickville Legal Centre.